

Onomatopoeia

(on-o-mah-tuh-pee-ya)

Boom! Crash! Squelch! An onomatopoeia is a word that sounds like the noise it's describing! Comic books are especially good at doing this, but they often come up in regular books too! Think about this sentence: The leaves rustled in the wind. Can you find the onomatopoeia??

Write a word or create a whole new word to describe the following sounds:

wind blowing

tiny pebbles falling

trumpet blast

Great onomatopoeias! Now build one or two sentences using your brilliant sound words!

Handwriting practice lines consisting of four sets of three horizontal lines: a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.